Re: Docket Number: MB-02-235

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I write in regard to the Commission's review of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc., and the Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As President of California State University, Bakersfield, I have had many opportunities to interact with local Univision station managers. And, CSUB has engaged in many collaborative initiatives with the Univision station here in Bakersfield. In all cases, Univision has demonstrated an exceptional commitment to serving this community. From my perspective, I believe this merger will enable Univision to compete even more effectively in serving the growing Hispanic public regionally.

In recent years, local Univision management has reached out to CSUB in expanding its community information programming. Members of our CSUB staff have appreciated the opportunity to be involved in providing information to the Spanish-speaking community about higher education matters. Members of our staff have been frequent guests on Univision community information programs; some have served on Univision Education Advisory Committees; and Univision has provided excellent news coverage of university events. Together, we have sought to inform and educate our community about the importance of a university education. At every turn, local Univision management has demonstrated a genuine responsiveness and commitment to serve this community and its needs.

Regarding the proposed merger, the combined efforts of Univision and HBC should be viewed as a significant positive opportunity for Hispanics in the media specifically, and for the Hispanic community as a whole, for the following reasons:

- 1. The Merger will promote the growth of Hispanic radio and television job opportunities for Hispanics. The histories of both Univision and HBC point to enhanced prospects for growth, not constriction or consolidation.
- 2. New capital investments will be attracted to Hispanic media, resulting in increased competition and greater management opportunities for Hispanics. The growth of Univision and its commitment to training and promoting Hispanics has created a significant new base of Hispanics, with the expertise to own and operate a broadcast station or network. The Hispanic broadcast talent base now has the type of access and base of opportunity that would have been difficult to imagine only a few years ago.
- 3. Combining Univision and HBC resources will provide enhanced services to the Hispanic community. This will result in a significant strengthening and growth of media services serving the Hispanic community.

In light of the substantial benefits arising to the Hispanic community from the proposed merger of Univision and HBC, and their demonstrated service to this community, I wish to indicate my support of this proposed transaction.

Cordially,

Tomás A. Arciniega

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am David Austin from The Joaquin Murrieta Ride and I am writing in regards to the Commission's review of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc. and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As a member of the Hispanic community, I am confident that this merger will create a media organization better poised to serve our community and to compete against America's media conglomerates for the growing Hispanic audience.

The combined efforts of Univision and HBC should be viewed as a significant opportunity for Hispanics in the media and for the Hispanic community as a whole for the following reasons:

1) The Merger will promote growth of Hispanic radio and television job opportunities for Hispanics. The histories of both Univision and HBC are of growth, not constriction or consolidation.

Continued growth of the radio and television businesses of Univision and HBC will inherently mean growth in media opportunities for Hispanics. In the case of each of Univision and HBC, I am aware that more than 80% of the work force is Hispanic and that is expected to continue after the proposed merger. Hispanics are employed across the entire field of employment opportunities at Univision. In fact, 50% of the Univision Board and 65% of operating management are Hispanic. And over 130 Hispanic women hold management positions. I know that this is not by accident; but rather by design. Univision consciously and aggressively seeks out talented Hispanics for management positions.

2) New capital investments will be attracted to Hispanic media resulting in increased competition and greater management and ownership opportunities for Hispanics. Major investors are increasingly interested in supporting entrepreneurs already engaged or considering entering the Hispanic media business. The Merger will serve to increase the interest of investors and other capital suppliers, thus resulting in the development of new Hispanic radio and television stations and networks. Those stations and networks will need Hispanic leadership and talent to thrive.

No. of Copies recid_ List A S C D E The growth of Univision and its policies of training and promoting Aspanics have created a significant base of Hispanics who now have the expertise to own and operate a broadcast station or network. And, as a result of the pioneering work of Univision and companies like HBC to raise the visibility of Spanish-language media, the Hispanic broadcast talent base now has access to financing sources and advertising sources that would have been unimaginable only a few short years ago.

Regarding the growth of Spanish language media, I would like to make another point. I completely disagree with suggestions that this industry be segregated from other media. Over the past two decades, Spanish language media has grown by competing with English-language media and isolating this industry would be a huge step backward that would eventually eradicate the success already achieved. It is an affront to all Hispanics to suggest that the media serving this community could be considered substandard or different from its general market competitors.

3) The combined Univision and HBC resources will provide enhanced services to the Hispanic community. I believe that combining the resources of Univision and HBC will result in a significant strengthening and growth of media services available to the Hispanic community. By adding radio to Univision's television offerings, it will only enhance and deepen the relationship the company has with our community. I have personally worked with the local Univision affiliate [INSERT] on many occasions and truly appreciate that station's commitment to the betterment of our community. I am particularly grateful for the many public service announcements broadcast on their air as well as the indispensable information provided on their website.

In light of the substantial benefits arising to the Hispanic community from the proposed merger of Univision and HBS, I ask that this proposed transaction receive all due consideration as promptly as possible.

Dear Chairman Powell:

On behalf of the Kern County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce I urge you to favorably consider the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc. and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As a Hispanic business organization, we are confident that this merger will create a media organization better poised to serve our community and to compete against America's media conglomerates for the growing Hispanic audience.

With over 400 members, our mission is to... "Create, promote and enhance business opportunities for our members and the Hispanic business community". Based on the histories of both Univision and HBC, we strongly feel that the merger will create significant opportunities for Hispanics in both radio and television. In addition, new capital investments will be attracted to the Spanish language media resulting in increased competition, as well as greater management and ownership opportunities for Hispanics. And finally, we feel that the combined resources of Univision and HBC will result in significant growth of media services available to the Spanish-speaking community. By adding radio to Univision's television offerings, it will only enhance and deepen the relationship the company has with our community. From our organization's point of view, we are particularly grateful for the many public service announcements broadcast on their air promoting our events, as well as the information provided on their website.

The Kern County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and I are proud of the collaborative efforts we have enjoyed with the local Univision staff. Together we have created an awareness of the Hispanic culture and have promoted improvement in the quality of life of the Hispanic community. I strongly urge you to consider this merger and further increase the benefits available to the public,

Sincerely,

Re: Docket No. MB-02-235

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am Debbie Vega, Founder and Chairperson of LOLA (Latino Organization for Liver Awareness) and I am writing in regards to the Commission's review of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc. and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As a member of the Hispanic community, I am confident that this merger will create a media organization better poised to serve our community and to compete against America's media conglomerates for the growing Hispanic audience.

The combined efforts of Univision and HBC should be viewed as a significant opportunity for Hispanics in the media and for the Hispanic community as a whole for the following reasons:

1) The Merger will promote growth of Hispanic radio and television job opportunities for Hispanics. The histories of both Univision and HBC are of growth, not constriction or consolidation.

Continued growth of the radio and television businesses of Univision and HBC will inherently mean growth in media opportunities for Hispanics. In the case of each of Univision and HBC, I am aware that more than 80% of the work force is Hispanic and that is expected to continue after the proposed merger. Hispanics are employed across the entire field of employment opportunities at Univision. In fact, 50% of the Univision Board and 65% of operating management are Hispanic. And over 130 Hispanic women hold management positions. I know that this is not by accident; but rather by design. Univision consciously and aggressively seeks out talented Hispanics for management positions.

2) New capital investments will be attracted to Hispanic media resulting in increased competition and greater management and ownership opportunities for Hispanics. Major investors are increasingly interested in supporting entrepreneurs already engaged or considering entering the Hispanic media business. The Merger will serve to increase the interest of investors and other capital suppliers, thus resulting in the development of new Hispanic radio and television stations and networks. Those stations and networks will need Hispanic leadership and talent to thrive.

The growth of Univision and its policies of training and promoting Hispanics have created a significant base of Hispanics who now have the expertise to own and operate a broadcast station or network. And, as a result of the pioneering work of Univision and companies like HBC to raise the visibility of Spanish-language media, the Hispanic broadcast talent base now has access to financing sources and advertising sources that would have been unimaginable only a few short years ago.

Regarding the growth of Spanish language media, I would like to make another point. I completely disagree with suggestions that this industry be segregated from other media. Over the past two decades, Spanish language media has grown by competing with English-language media and isolating this industry would be a huge step backward that would eventually eradicate the success already achieved. It is an affront to all Hispanics to suggest that the media serving this community could be considered substandard or different from its general market competitors.

3) The combined Univision and HBC resources will provide enhanced services to the Hispanic community. I believe that combining the resources of Univision and HBC will result in a significant strengthening and growth of media services available to the Hispanic community. By adding radio to Univision's television offerings, it will only enhance and deepen the relationship the company has with our community. I have personally worked with the local Univision affiliate, Univision 41/WXTV, on many occasions and truly appreciate that station's commitment to the betterment of our community. I am particularly grateful for the many public service announcements broadcast on their air as well as the indispensable information provided on their website.

In light of the substantial benefits arising to the Hispanic community from the proposed merger of Univision and HBC, I ask that his proposed transaction receive all due consideration as promptly as possible in order to make these benefits to the public a reality.

Sincerety.

Re: Docks

Docket No. MB-02-236

Dear Mr. Chairman:

On behalf of The Miami Coalition For a Safe and Drug Free Community, I am writing to add to the Commission's review of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc. and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As a member of the Miami-Dade community, I am confident that this merger will create a media organization better poised to serve our community and to compete for the growing Hispanic audience.

The combined efforts of Univision and HBC should be viewed as a significant opportunity for Hispanics in the media and for the Hispanic community as a whole for the following reasons:

- The Merger will promote growth of Hispanic radio and television job opportunities for Hispanics. The histories of both Univision and HBC are of growth, not constriction or consolidation. Continued growth of the radio and television businesses of Univision and HBC will inherently mean growth in media opportunities for Hispanics. In the case of each of Univision and HBC, I am aware that more than 80% of the work force is Hispanic and that is expected to continue after the proposed merger. Hispanics are employed across the entire field of employment opportunities at Univision. In fact, 50% of the Univision Board and 65% of operating management are Hispanic. And over 130 Hispanic women hold management positions. Univision consciously and aggressively seeks out talented Hispanics for management positions.
- New capital investments will be attracted to Hispanic media resulting in increased competition and greater management and ownership opportunities for Hispanics. Major investors are increasingly interested in supporting entrepreneurs already engaged or considering entering the Hispanic media business. The Merger will serve to increase the interest of investors and other capital suppliers, thus resulting in the development of new Hispanic radio and television stations and networks. Those stations and networks will need Hispanic leadership and talent to thrive.

The growth of Univision and its policies of training and promoting Hispanics have created a significant base of Hispanics who now have the expertise to own and operate a broadcast station or network. And, as a result of the ploneering work of Univision and companies like HBC to raise the visibility of Spanish-language media, the Hispanic broadcast talent base now has access to financing sources and advertising sources that would have been unimaginable only a few short years ago.

As it relates to the growth of Spanish language media, I would like to make another point. I completely disagree with suggestions that this industry be segregated from other media. Over the past two decades, Spanish language media has grown by competing with English-language media and isolating this industry would be a huge step backward that would eventually eradicate the success already achieved. It is an affront to all Hispanics to suggest that the media serving this community could be considered substandard or different from its general market competitors.

The combined Univision and HBC resources will provide enhanced services to the Hispanic community. I believe that combining the resources of Univision and HBC will result in a significant strengthening and growth of media services available to the Hispanic community. By adding radio to Univision's television offerings, it will only enhance and deepen the relationship the company has with our community. I have personally worked with the local Univision affiliate WLTV on many occasions and truly appreciate that station's commitment to the betterment of our community. I am particularly grateful for the many public service announcements broadcast on their air as well as the indispensable information provided on their website.

In light of the substantial benefits arising to the Hispanic community from the proposed merger of Univision and HBC, I ask that this proposed transaction receive all due consideration as promptly as possible in order to make these benefits to the public a reality.

Re: Docket No. MB-02-235

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This letter is in response to the Commissioner's evaluation of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc., and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC).

I am the Artistic Director of the Miami Hispanic Ballet's/International Ballet Festival of Miami, and would like to express my unconditional support towards the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc., and HBC. As a Hispanic, and member of this diverse community, I am certain this merger will be a great success!

Univision Corporation Inc., has always been a key corporation in promoting cultural development, specially towards Hispanics in Florida. I can honestly say, that Univision Communications Inc., is one of our greatest supporters.

Miami Hispanic Ballet's/International Ballet Festival of Miami has worked alongside Univision Communications Inc. for over ten (10) years in promoting cultural awareness to Hispanics in Florida. Univision has opened the windows of success for many Hispanic cultural organizations in South Florida.

One of the main reasons for this merger is to promote growth in the radio and television industries which is much needed in our community, and furthermore, to create more job opportunities for our citizens. I understand, that more than eighty percent (80%) of the work force in both Univision and HBC is Hispanic, and that this is expected to continue after the proposed merger. Furthermore, Fifty (50%) percent of Univision's Board and sixty five (65%) percent of the operating management are Hispanic. In addition, over 130 Hispanic women hold management positions. This is one of many of Univision's strategies to preserve

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am writing to share with you our very successful collaboration with Univision to reach families of children with disabilities. We are a disability information center surving the US and we were struggling to get our message out to the Spanish speaking families who have children with disabilities.

In the fall of 2000, Univision's Community and Public Affairs Dept contacted our staff at the National Information Center for Children and Youth with Disabilities. They were about to produce a program focused on children with disabilities and they wanted to know if our project could assist and be listed as a resource for families. But, more importantly, they wanted to be sure that, if they listed our project, we were able to provide information and assistance to families. We were thrilled! Not only did Univision want to produce a quality program about children with disabilities but they wanted to ensure that families were connected with helpful resources.

Needless to say, we assisted with this program and our national information center toll free number was included in the program. When the program was broadcast and subsequently rebroadcast, we received thousands and thousands of phone calls and we sent out thousands of free materials to families and educators.

It is now over three years and several programs later and Univision remains committed to our collaborative efforts to educate families and the general public about children with disabilities and their educational needs. We could not have reached the many thousand families- who continue to call today- without the fine work of the Community and Public Affairs Dept. and the commitment of Univision. Their outreach to underserved families of children with disabilities around the country is invaluable. Our center could never have reached and served so many families.

We look forward to continuing our collaboration with the fine staff of Univ sion to improve the lives of children with disabilities.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I am writing in regards to the Commission's review of the proposed merger between Univision Communications Inc. and Hispanic Broadcasting Corporation (HBC). As a long standing member of the Hispanic community (since 1962,) I am the Producing Artistic Director of Teatro Avante, a non-profit, tax-exempt cultural organization, established in the State of Florida since 1979. We are also the producers and presentors of the annual award-winning International Hispanic Theatre Festival, since 1986.

I am confident that this merger will create a better poised media organization to serve our community and to compete against America's media conglomerates for the growing Hispanic audience. In fact, Univision (WLTV-Channel 23) and HBC (WQBA 1140AM & AMOR 107.5FM) are both mayor founding sponsors of our International Hispanic Theatre Festival (IHTF), and of all of Teatro Avante's productions and programs since 1986, when the festival began. Without their media support, this festival (the only one of its kind in the U.S.) would have not been able to survive. Due to the extreme circumstances of the current world situation, which has created economic chaos, fear among participants and the public as well, and most dangerous of all, significant decrease of public and private funding for cultural and arts programs, the support of Univision and HBC has been crucial to the preservation, development and enhancement of our Hispanic cultural heritage.
